Uncasville, Conn.

THE 185-ACRE, NATIVE AMERICAN-THEMED casino resort along the banks of the Thames River boasts a 1,200-room luxury hotel tower connected to three casinos with some 350 gaming tables and 6,000 slot machines plus more than 35 retail shops. As if you need more ways to keep you busy, a 10,000-seat arena, the Cabaret Theatre and the Wolf Den bring in top headliners, comedy shows and sporting events.

You may choose never to leave the hotel tower, where you'll find the 22,000-square-foot Elemis Spa, a haven for pampering. In addition to its long list of services and treatments that take place within 20 individual rooms, you can spend "me" time in the sauna, steam room, whirlpool and relaxation area.

Next door to the spa is an indoor pool with food and beverage service and a seasonal outdoor terrace. Nearby, a large fitness center is the place to burn off the calories you're sure to rack up when you indulge in the area's dining scene. More than 40 restaurants and bars, including nightclubs and lounges, can be found here.

When it's time to explore southeastern Connecticut beyond the casinos, check out the quaint town of New London and its historic waterfront district, only 20 minutes away. Pair dinner in town with seeing a show at the beautifully restored Garde Arts Center, an attraction dating back to 1926. For dinner, consider Chaplin's. Chef/owner Jack Chaplin and his staff create delicious American bistro meals dominated by seafood. • Mohegan Sun Blvd. • mohegansun.com • 888-226-7711

INSIDER TIP

Try Ballo Italian Restaurant & Social Club for an elegant meal. Designed to resemble a Gothic abbey built in the 12th century in Tuscany, the large space sets the mood for fresh, locally grown produce and Italian favorites. Service is also superior.
